

Biographical Sketch for: Pastor Dwayne A. Robinson, M.Div

Dwayne Anderson Robinson is a native of Portsmouth, Virginia. In his latter years as a teen he moved to Washington, D.C. There he continued his education and began his career in the workforce.

Pastor Dwayne, who is a fourth-generation preacher, has always found joy in serving in the local Church. During his formative years, Pastor Dwayne was very active in youth ministry at the Ebenezer Baptist Church, in Portsmouth, Virginia and eventually became a leader of the youth ministry. He has always had a passion for the youth, and it was of no surprise when he was called to be a Youth Pastor in Fredericksburg, VA, where he served faithfully for over 20 years, before being called into his first Pastorate.

On June 24, 2012, The Mount Olive Baptist Church of Culpeper, Virginia installed Pastor Dwayne to be their Pastor. The Church grew and did some great things in the community under his leadership. On September 10, 2017, Pastor Dwayne and his wife Rev. Markeeta Robinson stepped out on a long-time vision that God had given them to start a ministry in Fredericksburg, Va. They started The House of Victory Fredericksburg Church. This ministry has grown significantly. It is a vibrant, and diverse Community of Faith, that believes God has provided Victory in every aspect of our lives through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Pastor Dwayne is also the founder and CEO of Victory Christian Academy, a Christian school from K4 through 12TH grade. He is also the CEO of Visions of Victory Daycare, a Christian daycare to meet the needs of working families that need quality, affordable Christian childcare.

Pastor Dwayne's greatest joy is his family. He is married to Pastor Markeeta Robinson, and they have four children, Dwayne, Camrin, Micah and Judah.
